Harrisonburg–Rockingham Association of REALTORS®

RENTAL SCAM - FACEBOOK MARKETPLACE

We recently had an Agent report their listing being used in a scam.

Within moments of making it Active, it was showing up on Facebook Marketplace as a rental. Luckily the person who was interested found the Active Listing and contacted the listing office. What's scary about this is that the scammer even went as far as to bring up trusting each other. They also tried to pressure them into making a decision, by claiming there was another couple interested, so they needed a decision made quickly.

As with previous issues with Craigslist, now the scam has moved to Facebook.
