Forewarn: The Ultimate Life-Saving App Webinar

Wednesday, September 29th at 4 PM EST

Many apps claim to be able to help you if you ever find yourself in a potentially dangerous situation, but the problem is typically you are most likely not going to be able to use them in a real-life situation. But what if there was a tool that could help you predict who might be a potentially dangerous person so that you might avoid the dangerous situation altogether. Well, that is the premise and power of Forewarn. In this session, Craig will be joined by Josh Tillerson of Forewarn to talk about how to use this life-saving app for your personal safety and other situations as well.

Instructor: Craig Grant

Special Guest: Josh Tillerson
